

AN ELK HONORED

Reception for O'Brien at Hawaiian Hotel.

(From Wednesday's Advertiser.)

Draped with the American colors, the purple pennant of the Elks also conspicuous in the decorations, the Royal Hawaiian Hotel was the scene last evening of a gathering of the honored herd of Honolulu to do honor to the biggest Elk of them all, Grand Exalted Ruler W. J. O'Brien of Baltimore. It was a notable event in Elksdom and the individual Elks showed up well. The Antlers were well polished and the owners thereof looked sleek and well fed, indicating that they had browsed and drank in bounteous places.

The janitor and ballroom of the hotel were attractively decorated with palm branches and bunting, and throughout the building with its beautiful display of electric lights, there was evidence that the Elks were "in."

The Grand Exalted Ruler and Mrs. O'Brien were guests of honor at a dinner given by the chief representatives of Honolulu Lodge, No. 618. The other guests were Past Exalted Rulers, Dr. C. B. Cooper, J. H. Fisher and F. E. Thompson, Mrs. Cooper, Mrs. Fisher and Mrs. Thompson, the present Exalted Ruler, George Angus, and Mrs. Angus, and H. Wingate Lake and Mrs. Lake. The table was prettily decorated with purple asters.

TAXATION BILL.

The conference committee recommended the passage of House Bill 123, relating to taxation, as originally passed by the Senate and dropping the House amendment as impracticable. The House concurred and the bill passed third reading.

ANOTHER VETO.

A veto was received from Governor Carter knocking out one item of the act making appropriation for the Attorney General's Department. The item was one of $879.90 for expenses and jurors' fees in the Fifth Circuit to June 30, 1904. The remaining items were approved. The House concurred. The Committee on Public Lands and Internal Improvements reported unanimously against the appropriation of $85,000 for increasing the storage capacity in Nuuanu valley (Lilikalan). The report was adopted and the resolution tabled.

The joint resolution from the Senate to instruct the Attorney General to ascertain the true valuation and capitalization of the Rapid Transit and Land Company, with a view to ascertaining why the company has not paid the Territory a proportion of its profits, was read in the House. An amendment was offered by Harris, but was voted down, the joint resolution passing in its original form.

POSSIBLE EXTENSION.

The Senate's concurrent resolution to the effect that if the Governor failed to sign Senate Bill 138, to provide funds for expenses of counties, before noon, the session should be extended ten days, was read in the House after recess. On Harris's motion action was deferred until later in the day.

THIRD READINGS.

Senate Bill 130, relating to taxes on bequests, passed third reading by 19 to 9.

Senate Bill 79, providing for the deposit of public moneys in designated depositories, was indefinitely postponed.

Senate Bill 132, relating to basis of taxation, passed third reading without opposition.

Senate Bill 127, to amend Chapter 127, R. L., relating to corporations, passed third reading.

TANTALUS PARK KILLED.

Senate Bill 6, to declare certain lands as public parks which was up for third reading, met with opposition, the section setting aside the Tantalus tract being fought by Aylett and Cox. By a vote of 16 to 11 the Tantalus proposition was stricken out and the bill passed as amended by 20 to 9.

Senate Bill 86, making it a misdemeanor to defraud a livery stable keeper, was beaten by a vote of 16 yeas, 8 ayes.

Senate Bill 92, to provide for the examination of official reporters of the First Circuit Court, passed third reading by 20 to 8.

Superintendent Holloway wrote the House that he found a number of Portuguese and Porto Rican laborers employed on the Keahou-Railroad road, North Kona, but he quoted the opinion of Assistant Attorney General Prosser to the effect that under existing laws persons possessing the qualifications for citizenship from the race standpoint may be employed on public works. The letter was filed.

BILLS SIGNED.

The Governor notified the House of the signing of the following bills: House Bill 223, for funding bonded indebtedness.

Senate Bill 141, to amend Section 1, Act 34, of the session of 1905.

Senate Bill 89, in relation to licensing emigrant agents.

Joint resolution authorizing transfer of $761.36 from current cash to land sales special deposit fund.

Senate Bill No. 51 (Act 63), providing for the parole of prisoners.

COMMANDER BULL MUST EXPLAIN

Commander Bull of the transport Solace was recently summoned to Washington to make an explanation to the Navy authorities as to why he banished from cabin privileges, on the transport's last trip from Manila, Mrs. Costello, wife of a master mechanic in the government works at Cavite. The story leaked out while the Solace was at Honolulu. The San Francisco Call tells the story of the incident as follows:

While Commander Bull's subordinates were rejoicing over the prospects that the inquiry into the Costello incident, which brought into an unfavorable light Lieutenant Commander Knapp, who was really responsible for the indignity unjustly heaped on Mrs. Costello, might result in the transport's executive officer being detached from the vessel, orders have been received transferring Dr. F. J. B. Cordiero, the ship's surgeon, and Dominick Glynn, chief boatswain, to shore duty on waiting orders. Dr. Cordiero was among several of the Solace's officers who went to Lieutenant Commander Knapp and protested against his treatment of Mrs. Costello. After the arrival of the Solace here the surgeon, as was published in yesterday's Call, was, on a slight pretext, sent to his quarters for ten days. Boatswain Glynn, who also protested to the executive officer, has since been subjected to the most rigid discipline. The fact that these two men, who, by their manly defense of an unfortunate woman, incurred the enmity of the Solace's lieutenant commander, have now been transferred from the vessel, has naturally caused the other officers of the vessel to hastily arrive at the conclusion that Captain Knapp is going out on the Solace as its executive officer.

A movement was recently inaugurated to have Knapp detached from the Solace, but apparently the Navy Department has decided to ignore the protests made against him and instead of removing him those who appealed to him for justice to Mrs. Costello will soon be assigned to sea service on some other Government vessel. The feeling against Lieutenant Commander Knapp aboard the Solace is not confined only to the officers, but has extended to the crew, one of whom recently dared to overstep the bounds of discipline while ashore and roundly roast Knapp for his seemingly ungentlemanly conduct toward the humble wife of an American citizen.

Aside from the injuries to his face A. S. Humphreys sustained a fractured rib in his encounter with George Davis.

Men of Oak

Timbers of oak keep the old homestead standing through the years. It pays to use the right stuff.

"Men of oak" are men in rugged health, men whose bodies are made of the soundest materials.

Childhood is the time to lay the foundation for a sturdy constitution that will last for years.

ATKINNSO WILL TRY TO SOLVE LABOR PROBLEM

(From Wednesday's Advertiser.)

The list of appointments sent in by Governor Carter to the Legislature yesterday carried one name that created a kind of gasp. The selection involved so many possibilities. Why, it was asked about the Capitol, should the Governor appoint the Secretary of the Territory to the position of Chief of the Board of Immigration created under the law just passed by the two Houses of the Legislature? The explanation was given by Secretary Atkinson himself.

"When I was in Washington," he said, "I saw Commissioner-General of Immigration Sargent, and, of course, talked with him relative to conditions here, among them the condition of the labor market."

"Why," said Sargent to me, 'do you not get white laborers to go down there? The thing can be done, under the law.'"

"It was at the suggestion of Commissioner-General Sargent that the law just passed creating a Board of Immigration was drawn. It is modeled on a law in force in one of the States, I think Wisconsin. At first it was intended to have the matter placed in my hands as a part of the duties of the Secretary."

Second thought led to the conclusion that it would be better to have the advice of other parties posted on conditions in the labor market, and so the law was framed to provide a Board of Immigration. The provisions of the new law provides that a salary may be paid to the President of the Board, but so long as I hold the position, there will be no salary attached to the place. I will take the additional work, that is all."

The new law, naturally, is an effort to provide reliable labor to the plantations, and for this purpose white labor is preferred.

Incidentally, it may be mentioned that Commissioner-General Sargent is coming to Honolulu in June, but Secretary Atkinson, who leaves for the mainland today, hopes to be back and have his new Board of Immigration organized before that time.

The message of the Governor, containing the appointment of Secretary Atkinson, with many others, was sent to the Senate late yesterday afternoon, and under the rules action was postponed until today. The matter will be taken up at 2 p. m., so it was agreed yesterday. The message, with its list of appointments, follows:

EVER THINK ABOUT IT?

Many a Resident of Honolulu Will Tell You,

We are living in a very rapid age. Few of us bother our heads about small things, and so many persons look upon a pain, ache or lameness in the back as a small thing. They wait for it to pass off, giving no thought to the cause. Remember; The kidneys are the sewers of the system; they carry off the impure matter, but sewers sometimes become clogged up. So do the kidneys. The kidneys are located near the small of the back, hence any stoppage affects the back. This means backache, lame back, weak back and many other distressing symptoms.

There is lots more to tell on this subject, but we won't do it here, for we want to show you how to keep the kidneys so the back will have no cause to ache. You might not believe us, so we will let one of your own citizens tell their experience:

W. F. Williams of this city, is a light-house keeper, and he has held this position for the last 30 years. He says: "I was for a number of years, one of that numerous army of people who suffer with their backs. Mine ached and pained me to no small extent, so that I was glad when I heard of a remedy for it, Doan's Backache Kidneys Pills. I obtained some of these at the Hollister Drug Co.'s store, and took them. They gave me great relief, and I make this short narration of my experience for the benefit of others who perhaps do not know that nearly all backache arises from the kidneys, and the best medicine for it is Doan's Backache Kidneys Pills."

Doan's Backache Kidneys Pills are 50 cents per box, for sale by all druggists; sent by mail on receipt of price by the Hollister Drug Co., Honolulu, wholesale agents for the Hawaiian Islands.

THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.

Mr. Melville E. Stone gives in the Century for April, an interesting account of the establishment of the foreign service of "The Associated Press," of which he is the manager. By personal interview with the sovereigns of Germany and Italy, the French Minister of Foreign Affairs and the Pope, he succeeded in obtaining valuable privileges in the way of the prompt transmission of dispatches. Before this they had been transmitted through London and were too much colored by British opinion to suit the rulers of the continental States who were readily convinced of the importance to them of having a service purely American which would properly represent them in this country. Describing his interview with the Kaiser, Mr. Stone says: "He greeted me very cordially, and spoke in English of my mission to Berlin, and expressed his pleasure at the prospect that the people of the United States would be able to see Germany through American eyes. He said freely and at some length that he bore our people in affectionate regard, and assured me that he would give the necessary orders to put the Associated Press in a satisfactory position in Germany." This accords with the declaration of Emperor William, in a speech delivered at a banquet in Bremen March 23, where he declared that he had vowed never to strive after a barren sovereignty of the world. The world empire, of which he dreamed consisted of a German Empire, enjoying everywhere absolute confidence as a quiet, honorable, peaceful neighbor. "Every new battleship," said the Emperor, "furnishes another pledge of peace, making our enemies less ready to quarrel with us and making us more valuable allies. We are the salt of the earth, but we must be worthy of our condition."

Mr. Stone further says of the Emperor: "He was greatly gratified at the reception accorded to his brother, Prince Henry, but hoped that no citizen of the United States would imagine that the visit of the prince meant more than a sincere desire to foster good fellowship between the two peoples."

In the interview with the Pope at the Vatican he said: "I should be very happy if I could close my long career by establishing relations with this young republic through their sending an ambassador to my court." Three or four times he referred to the subject with great earnestness. It seemed very near to his heart.

The King of Italy said that while Italy is spoken of as a kingdom, it is in fact a republic in disguise, having the same parliamentary freedom that exists in England and the United States. Concerning Italian emigration to the United States, he said he was greatly pleased because a large number of the emigrants who went to the United States perfected themselves by their sojourn there, learned American methods, and then came back to Italy and applied these methods in their home life. He said that the percentage of Italians who emigrated to the United States and remained there was much smaller than was generally supposed. Many spend only the summer season in the United States and return in the winter to invest their earnings in land and bettering their condition.
